WHAT I DO

Being a true Microsoft Professional I am always looking for ways to integrate the latest features in existing and new environments, leading the way. I am on top of the newest releases, trying them out, studying them and I manage to be an expert on a broad range of Microsoft Products.

My goal as a Trainer is to make people and businesses successful where they want to be successful. My goal as a Consultant is to apply technology the way it is supposed to be applied. My goal as Speaker and Presenter is to enroll my audience in the marvels of Microsoft Technology.

I have a solid Financial and Economic background which enables me to have decisive conversations with decision makers. I can make things move forward by discussing possibilities instead of reasoning for not doing something.

Moved to Aruba in 2013 and decided to stay.
